END LONG SESSION: LABORS NOT DONE

Gov. Tener Expected to Convene Pennsylvania Legislators in the Fall.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 28-The 1913 of the Pennsylvania legislature came to an end this morning and already there is talk of an extra session next winter. Gov. Tener repeatedly during the long session urged the passage of child labor and workmen's compensation laws. Both these were defeated in the final hours, and he has declared that he will call the legislature in extra session to consider the measures again.

Another reason for an extra session will be the distribution of a fifty-million-dollar fund for road building. At the polls next November the people are to vote on an amendment to the constitution authorizing the expenditure of that much money, "THE SOUL AND ITS POSSIBILITIES" IS the subject Alfred H. Terry will lecture on Sunday evening in Flynn's Hall, cor. of 8th to be spent.

. Wants an Early Start.

Gov. Tener is desirous of having the good roads movement started during his administration, so if the proposed amendment is ratified by the voters he will need legislation at once to enable him to distribute the money.

The senate and house became deadlocked over the terms of the bill limiting the hours of employment of children, and their inability to agree caused its failure. The senate wanted to fix the number of hours at fifty-four a week, while the house held out for fifty hours In the closing hours of the session the appropriation for the state's participation in the San Francisco exposition was cut from $450,000 to $300,000.

Important Bills Passed.

Among the more important pieces of legislation which passed were a public utilities bill, a state-wide primary bill, a measure establishing the commission form of government, with the initiative and referendum, in more than a score of cities having less than 100,000 population: a bill reducing the hours of employment for women to ten hours a day and fiftyfour hours a week, a bill regulating cold storage, a bill taxing anthracite coal 5 cents a ton, and resolutions ratifying the federal amendment for the direct election of United States senators and submitting to the voters of the state a proposition to amend the constitution so that $50,000,000 may be borrowed for improve-The legislature also adopted a resolution proposing woman's suffrage.

> A new high mark was set Thursday for a day's total of recordation in the office of the recorder of deeds. There were received for record 180 papers, the largest number ever filed in one day in the entire history of the office. The banner day before Thursday had been June 30, 1898, the day before the revenue stamp law due to the Spanish-American war became operative. On that day brokers hastened the closing of deals to avoid the payment of the tax, and 167 papers were offered for record. In recent years the highest total for a day had been 163 papers, recorded

February 4, 1909. If the activity in the recorder's office is to be accepted as a criterion, the past week has been one of the most active of the year in realty selling. According to Deputy Recorder Dutton, the total recordation for June will be the largest for the season of the year ever known in his office, with the exception of June,
